DELTA MU BOULE EDUCATION FOUNDATION ACCESS SCHOLARSHIP

Dear Applicant,

Delta Mu Boule members are committed to the intellectual and social development of young African American males. We believe accessing and graduating from college is critical to increasing the quality of life for young African American males and their community. The purpose of the DELTA MU BOULE EDUCATION FOUNDATION (DMBEF) ACCESS SCHOLARSHIP is to support the growth and development of the next generation of African American men devoted to enhancing the quality of life in their community and for generations yet born.

The DMBEF ACCESS SCHOLARSHIP is available to African American males who are first year, full-time enrollees in an accredited college or university beginning the 2016 fall semester. Scholarships awards will be $1,000 per year to be paid towards direct college cost (tuition, cost of books and supplies). Scholarship renewal for an additional year will be considered based on recipient maintaining a 2.8 grade average and availability of funds. Scholarship check will be mailed directly to college or university.
